THE SETTING

WAKE FOREST UNIVERSITY-
WINSTON-SALEM-
NORTH CAROLINA

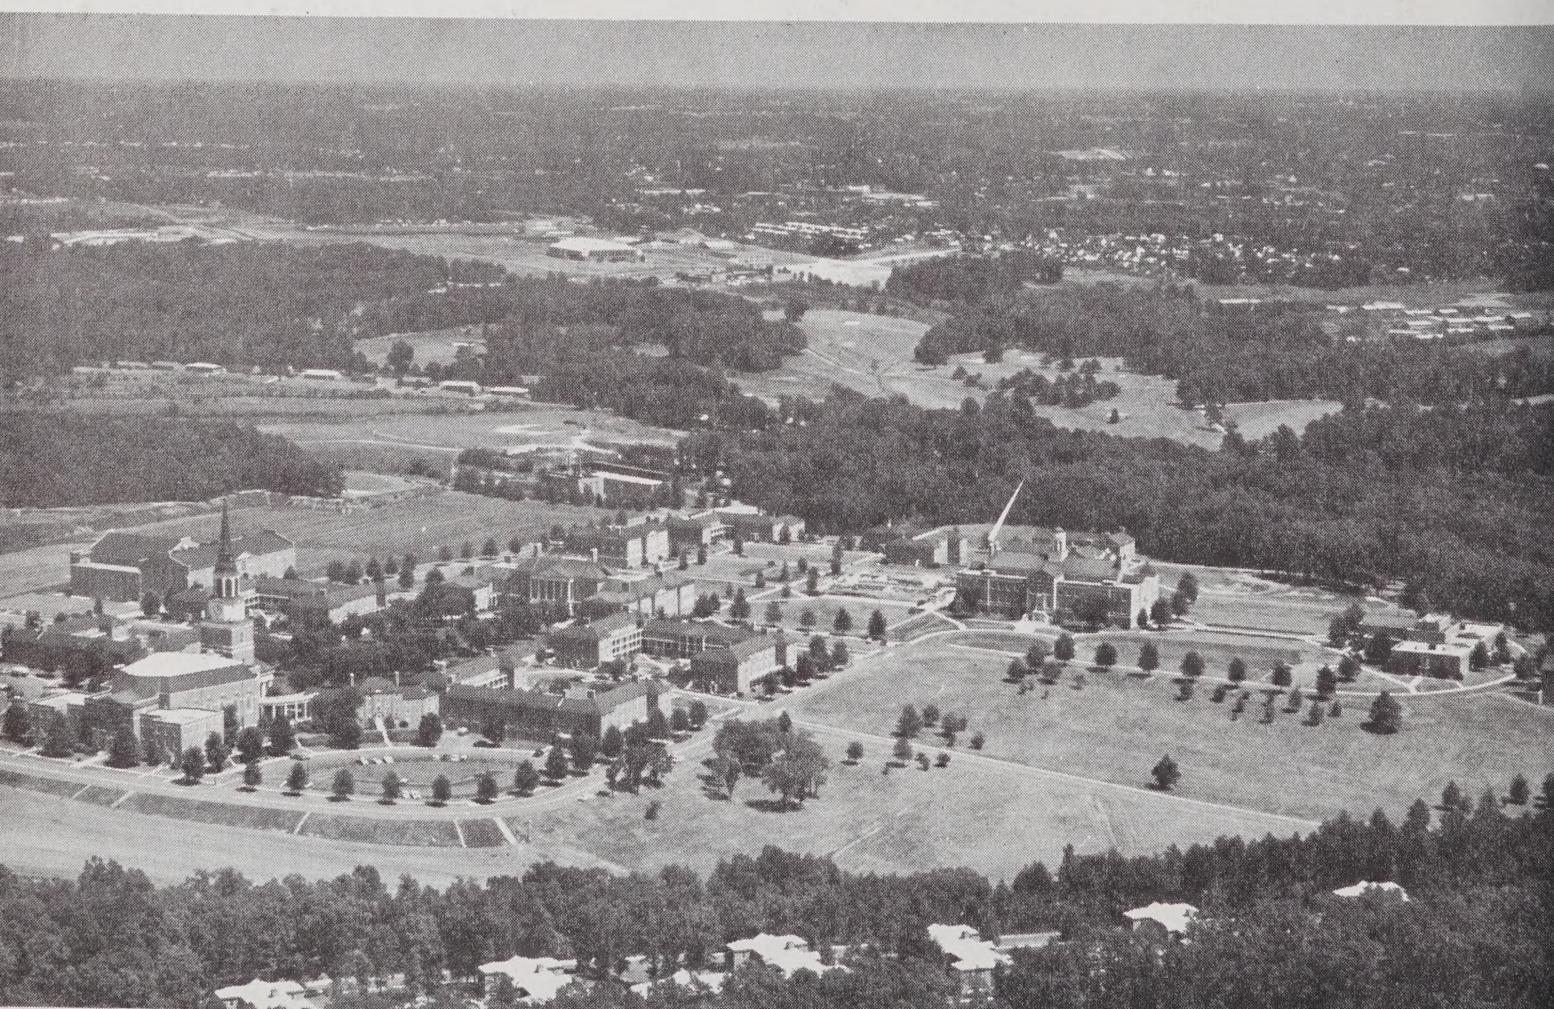

The Physical Beauty of the Wake Forest Campus and the surrounding area, and the warm and friendly atmosphere of Winston-Salem and North Carolina enhance the total University Community. The University is located on landscaped hills about four miles northwest of the center of the city between Cherry Street and Reynolda Road.

THE CAMPUS

Wake Forest is in the unique position of having a one hundred and thirty-four year heritage and a fifteen year old campus.

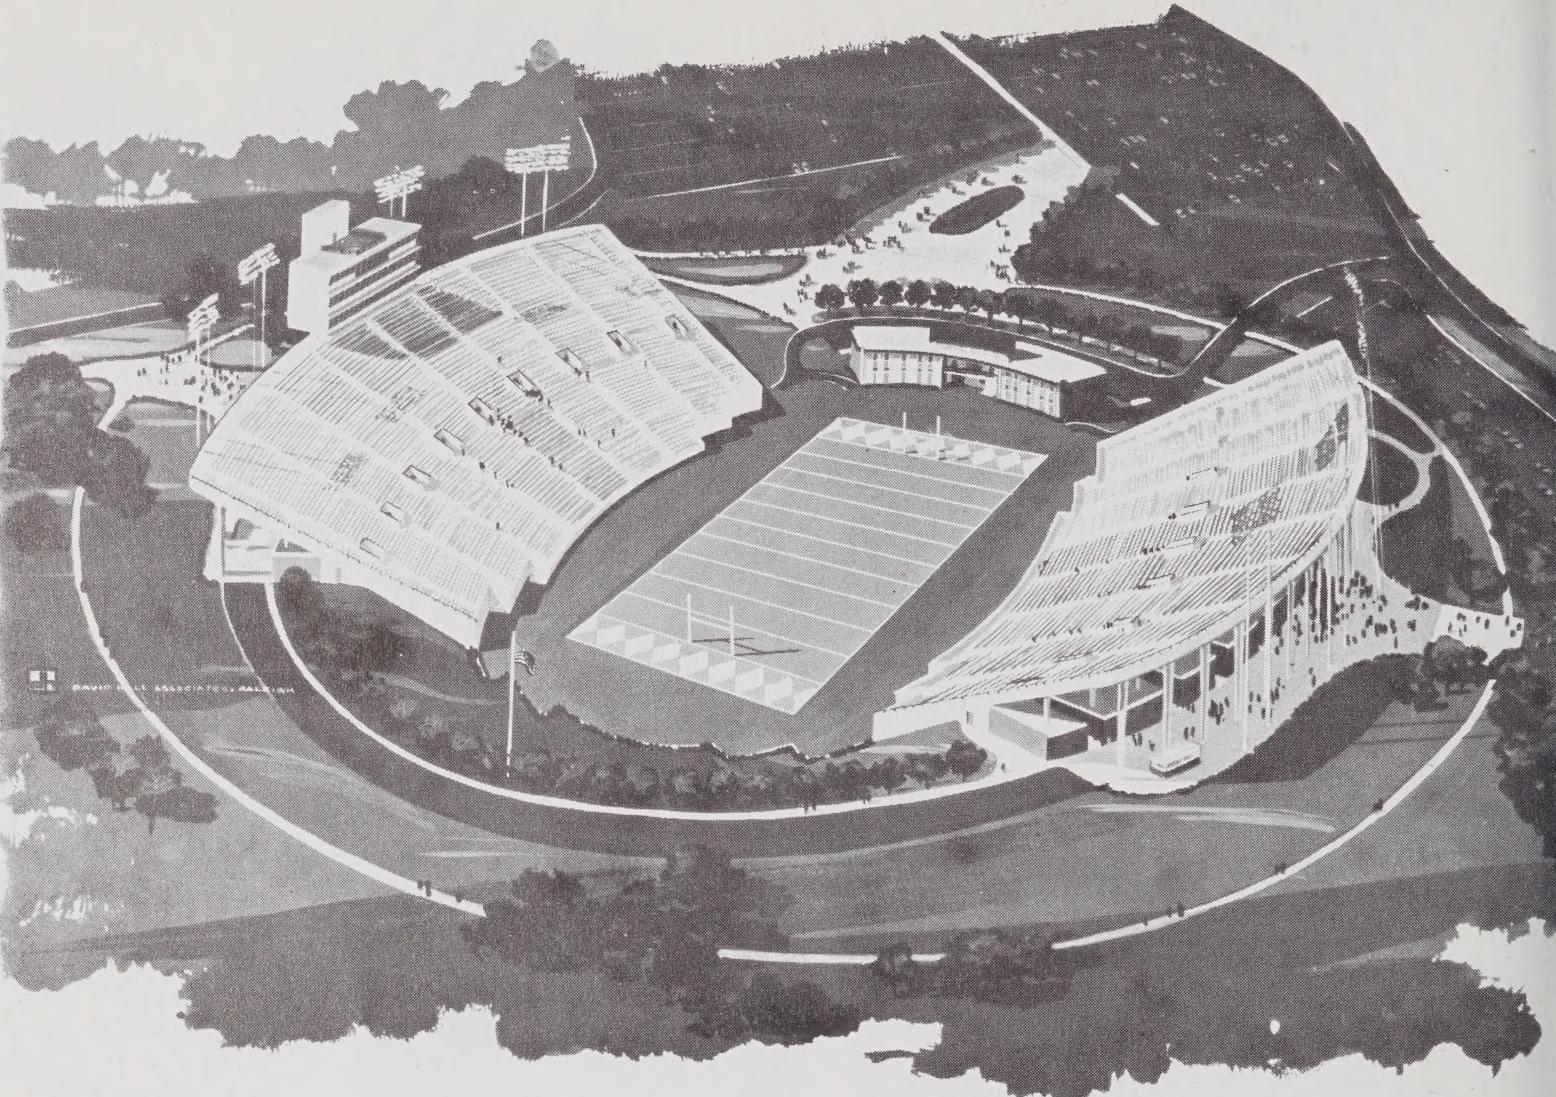

The main University campus, located on the former estate of the Reynolds family, Reynolda, embraces about 500 acres of land and 17 buildings. Its magnolia trees, expansive lawns and carefully-executed design make the campus one of the most beautiful in the South and the Nation. The buildings are of modified Georgian architecture, constructed of Old Virginia brick and trimmed in granite and limestone. In addition to the University buildings on the Reynolda campus, there are the President's Home, ten faculty apartment buildings housing seventy-two separate families, and fifty-six student apartments and a trailer park for married students. Work is continuing at present on the new building for the Charles H. Babcock School of Business Administration.

The campus of the Bowman Gray School of Medicine of Wake Forest University is located one mile west of the downtown area, and about four miles away from the Reynolda campus, at the North Carolina Baptist Hospital where the medical students fulfill their internship. The School of Medicine is presently engaged in a massive building expansion program financed by several large Federal grants. The School of Medicine also owns Graylyn, the former estate of Bowman Gray, located near the Reynolda campus.

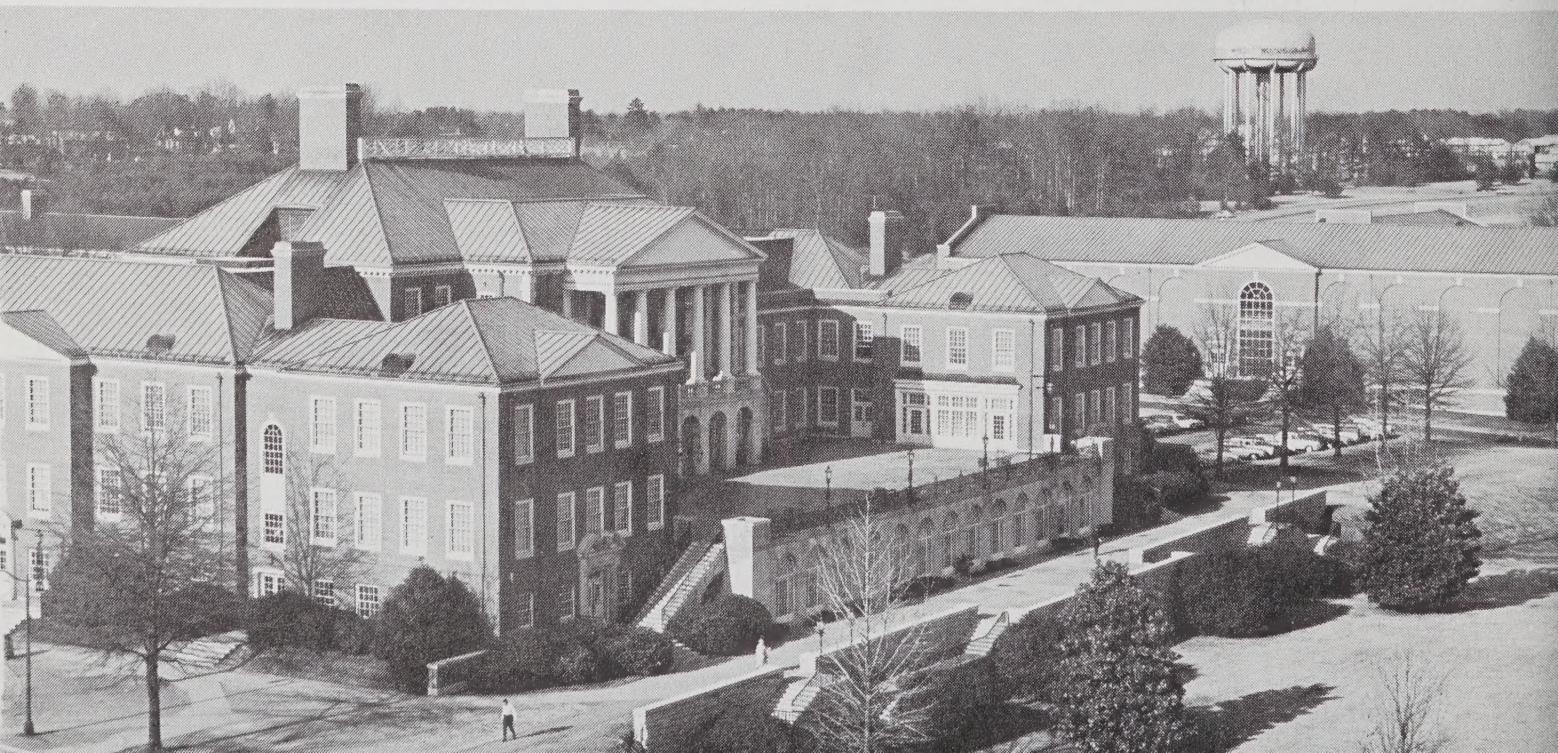

Adjacent to the campus on the southwest is the Reynolda Gardens annex, consisting of 148 acres and including Reynolda Woods and Reynolda Village, as well as Reynolda Gardens. An enchanting path leads to the Gardens from the biology building, on the west side of the campus. This area includes a formal garden, greenhouses, parking areas, a lake and a wooded area with trails. The formal gardens feature one of the finest collections of Japanese cherry trees in the United States. Throughout the year, the winding paths, and lakeside slopes of the Gardens are a favorite spot for study in the sun, leisurely strolls and student marriages.

Located to the southeast of the Reynolda campus is the new $4 million Wake Forest Football Stadium. The stadium, which will seat 31,000 spectators will be dedicated officially on September 14 at the first game of the 1968 season.

THE CAMPUS BUILDINGS

WAIT CHAPEL, named for the founder and first President of Wake Forest stands at the head of the campus plaza and doubles as a center of campus religious activity and an auditorium. It is the home of the Wake Forest Baptist Church. Adjacent to the Chapel on the north side is WINGATE HALL, named for the Civil War President of Wake Forest, which houses the University's departments of Music and Religion and the Chaplain's Office as well as the church offices.

REYNOLDA HALL, at the opposite end of the plaza, serves as the administration and student activities building. The west wing houses all the administrative offices of the University except the Alumni Office located at Merry Acres, an estate belonging to the University. The east wing accommodates student organizations and activities. In the central section of the building are located the cafeteria, a snack shop, lounges, conference rooms, and the campus restaurant, the Magnolia Room.

THE Z. SMITH REYNOLDS LIBRARY, situated at the center of the academic campus, houses the University library of about 400,000 volumes and has a capacity of one million volumes. In addition to several very large reading rooms, the library contains the University Theatre and the Attic Coffeehouse.

Directly west of the library are located SALEM and WINSTON HALLS, housing the departments of Chemistry and Physics, and Biology and Psychology, respectively. Both buildings contain complete facilities for the sciences.

On the east side of the library is TRIBBLE HALL, named for President Emeritus Harold W. Tribble. Consisting of classrooms, seminar rooms, and faculty offices, this building houses the Humanities departments of the University. Also located in Tribble Hall is DeTAMBLE AUDITORIUM.

East of Tribble Hall is the SCHOOL OF LAW containing classrooms, a moot courtroom and assembly room and the Law Library of about 36,000 volumes.

On the east side of Reynolda Hall is the W. N. REYNOLDS GYMNASIUM, containing facilities for all sports and the Athletic, Physical Education, and Military Science departments.

MEN'S DORMITORIES — Bordering the plaza on the east and west are four quadrangles of dormitories for men. These houses are named in honor of Charles E. Taylor, William L. Poteat, and Thurman D. Kitchin, former Presidents of Wake Forest, and Egbert L. Davis, a benefactor of the University. Each quadrangle contains three main floors with open galleries overlooking the quads. From these galleries are entrances to the suites of rooms each of which is occupied by a small group of men. Connecting Poteat and Taylor with Wait Chapel are two wings, Huffman and Efird dormitories, named for two benefactors of the University.

WOMEN'S DORMITORIES — At the southern end of the campus facing Reynolda Hall are the three women's dormitories. Lois Johnson Dormitory, in the center, named for the first Dean of Women, is for freshman coeds. The other two, Bostwick and Babcock, for upperclass coeds, are named for major benefactors of the school. In addition to double and single rooms, each building contains kitchens, recreation rooms, and formal and informal lounges.

Facing the Plaza and housed in the men's dormitories are a post office, a bank, the College Bookstore, The Center for Psychological Services, the Monogram Club, a men's and women's clothing store, a barber shop, a beauty shop, a photography studio and the College Sundry Shop. The Wake Forest Laundry is housed in Taylor Dorm, and a tailor shop is located in the basement of Reynolda Hall.

WINSTON-SALEM

Winston-Salem is located in Piedmont North Carolina, the fastest growing area in the eastern United States. Together with Greensboro and High Point, Winston-Salem forms the "Golden Triangle" or "The All America Triad" as it is sometimes called, Winston-Salem having been declared All America in 1959 and 1964, High Point in 1963, and Greensboro in 1967. Together, they form the sixteenth largest metropolitan area in the United States, the largest between Washington and Atlanta.

The origin of Winston-Salem can be traced to the founding of Salem in 1766 by a group of Moravians. In 1849, the industrial city of Winston was founded and the two merged into Winston-Salem in 1913, which now has a population of approximately 140,000.

R. J. Reynolds Tobacco Company, the main industry of Winston-Salem has over 9,000 people in its employment. Producers of Winston, Salem, Camel and Tempo cigarettes, RJR also produces the Hawaiian Punch Products, Chun King Foods, Filler Snack Foods, and many other diversified products. The city also houses Wachovia Bank and Trust, the southeast's largest bank, Hanes Corporation, the largest producers of seamless hose, and Piedmont Aviation, the largest regional airline in the nation.

The student may find abundant sources and opportunities for cultural and recreational activities. The University sponsors a concert-lecture series; and in addition, students may attend programs of the Civic Music Association, the Little Theatre, the Winston-Salem Symphony, the Winston-Salem Singer's Guild, and the Chamber Music Society.

Relaxation and light entertainment are also provided for by Winston-Salem. Besides having several drive-in theatres, there are two downtown theatres and new ones at the Parkway Plaza and Reynolda Manor shopping centers. The student will find miniature golf courses and bowling alleys close by. The City Recreation Department operates 25 recreation centers and four parks, with facilities for all types of activities. Winston-Salem also has a wide variety of many fine restaurants.

Student golfers may take advantage of two public courses, Hillcrest Golf Club and Reynolds Park. The area surrounding the city offers other opportunities for recreation. One may find swimming, golf, horse-back riding, fishing, pinicking, and games at "Tanglewood," the William and Kate B. Reynolds Memorial Park. Only 47 miles from the campus, the student can find the beautiful and scenic Blue Ridge Parkway, which attracts many students during the fall and spring months. Near these attractive ranges are located the Hanging Rock State Park, 30 miles north of the city, and Pilot Mountain Park, 25 miles northwest of Winston-Salem.

One of the finest examples of restored colonial life in the United States is Old Salem, a special attraction in the city. Salem College, a distinguished four-year college for women, is located in Old Salem. Salem Academy, founded in 1772, is the oldest preparatory school for girls in the South. Easter and Christmas services of the Moravian Church are attended by people from all over the nation, in honor of the heritage of the city. Winston-Salem's third college is Winston Salem State College, a state school.

In addition, Winston-Salem offers many opportunities for community service for students. The Baptist Student Union sponsors a mission house on Patterson Avenue, and many students work in the Experiment in Self-Reliance or one of its agencies. Winston-Salem has formed an Urban Coalition to fight the problems of poverty and students have pledged their active, working support to the betterment of our University community at large.

THE PEOPLE

THE ADMINISTRATION

The Wake Forest administration has seen many changes in the past 18 months — a new president, two new vice presidents, a new provost, and a new dean. It is a mixture of the old and the new — full of new ideas tempered by the spirit of the Wake Forest heritage. Many offices have new owners and many remain the same, but all have open doors to the students of the University.

DR. JAMES RALPH SCALES

—Young, dynamic eleventh president of Wake Forest; first man inaugurated as President of Wake Forest University; implementer of progressive ideas; the Wake Forest Tradition with a different accent; regularly accompanied by "Missy" a golden retriever, the "new University mascot."

DR. EDWIN G. WILSON

—First Provost of the University; appointed after several years as a very popular Dean of the College; Wake Forest and Harvard graduate; named "Super-prof" by Esquire magazine; student friend and supporter.

MR. GENE T. LUCAS

—In his second year as Vice President for Business and Finance; young, outgoing; open to proposals for progress; quite a businessman — quite a guy.

DR. THOMAS E. MULLEN

—Dean of Wake Forest College; appointed Dean on July 1 after ten years on the faculty as popular History professor; intelligent, creative, inquisitive.

DR. ROBERT A. DYER

—Assistant Dean of the College with twelve years of faculty experience as a professor in the Religion Department; hard behind-the-scenes worker; rose gardener; student helper.

DR. THOMAS M. ELMORE

—Dean of Students -- in the truest sense of the term; energetic, forceful, friendly; closely connected with many students organizations and interested in all; someone to know.

MR. MARK H. REECE

—The pipe-smoking, joke-cracking, hard-working Dean of Men who labors unceasingly as Advisor to the College Union; a Wake Forest graduate with many varied interests and activities.

MISS LU LEAKE

—Vibrant, friendly Dean of Women whose record shows such advances as the appointment of a residence counselor for Bostwick and Junior Advisors; Liberalized and more realistic policies for coed conduct; a Dean of Women who speaks to the guys too.

DR. L. H. HOLLINGSWORTH

—“Holly,” Chaplain of the University; active in many phases of campus life; persevering organizer of chapel programs with merit; has an open office door and welcomes student visitors.

MR. JOHN G. WILLIARD

—Pursestring-holding Treasurer with a demanding job; active participant in campus activities; at Wake Forest for ten years; with the Wake Forest spirit of friendliness.

MR. GRADY S. PATTERSON

—Registrar; as much a part of Wake Forest as Wait Chapel; 44 years at Wake Forest; always in command of the situation; loyal administrator; always speaks when you see him.

The Alumni

The Wake Forest University Alumni Association is the organization through which former students maintain lifelong ties with the School. These ties are based on a relationship as natural and as mutual as the bond between parent and child. "Alumnus" means foster son, and "Alma Mater" means nourishing mother. The Alumni Association seeks to preserve and enhance the vitality of this concept and to employ it for the benefit of both alumni and the University.

Graduates and all former students who have received any academic credits from the University automatically become members of the Association. In addition, other persons interested in the University and desiring affiliation with the Association may be elected to honorary membership. Currently there are approximately 16,500 members who are engaged in all fields of human endeavor. New members are being added at the rate of approximately 900 a year.

The purposes of the Association, as stated in the Constitution, are "to nourish friendly relations among its members, to maintain and strengthen in alumni the best spirit and ideals of the University, and to secure co-operation of alumni and the public in helping the University to render the most effective service possible."

Two meetings of the Association are held annually, one at the University during commencement and one during the annual session of the Baptist State Convention at the time and place the Convention meets. From time to time, special meetings may be called.

The executive arm of the Association is the Alumni Council. The Council is composed of 36 members selected to represent the geographical distribution of alumni, plus several other members who hold seats by virtue of their offices, such as the President of the University. The Council meets on call of the President of the Alumni Association and Director of Alumni Activities. It carries out such projects as the Association may approve and sponsor. It also formulates policies and conducts business of the Association in the interims between meetings of the Association.

Programs of the Association include the sponsorship of class reunions on Alumni Day during commencement, maintenance of local chapters of the Association in communities where alumni are heavily concentrated and conduct of an annual giving campaign, called the Living Endowment, through which alumni are invited to contribute to the financial support of the University.

Members of the Association receive without charge The Wake Forest Magazine, which is published every other month. This magazine is designed to keep alumni abreast of life and developments on the campus and of the activities of fellow alumni. It also attempts to be a medium of continuing education for alumni by projecting the latest trends and thought in higher education. Contributions are invited from students, faculty members and alumni.

The ultimate strength of the University rests with its alumni. The opportunities of students on the campus today are wider and more meaningful because of continuing alumni support. Students therefore ought to acquaint themselves with the alumni program while they are still in school. The high station of alumnus is not to be taken lightly.

STUDENT ACTIVITIES

Campus Politics

Politics is the science of Government and at Wake Forest the direction of Student Government is tied closely to the political fortunes of parties and personalities. A strong two-party system exists on the campus with the Better Politics on Campus (BPOC) and Student Action Movement (SAM) parties waging strong spirited campaigns for class and Student Body offices.

With the separation of Honor Council and Judicial Board elections from Student Government elections, interest is focused on the political races. Campaigning is vigorous, complete with nominating conventions, issue-oriented platforms, candidate debates, receptions for co-eds, combo rallies, and door-to-door politicking. The '68 elections ended with an end to a 2-year BPOC domination of the top Student Government offices as SAM swept all four executive positions. Balance was maintained as BPOC took 14 of 26 Legislative seats.

The Legislature is divided along party lines, an arrangement which encourages Student Government action and often provides a choice of both program and approach.

Campus politics provide the student an opportunity to gain first-hand experience in practical politics. But more important, the improved political climate at Wake Forest over the past three years has done much to bring the student a far greater voice in shaping Wake Forest University.

Student Government

Student Government is in the process of a massive reorganizational program aimed at giving the student body a truly effective voice in making and enforcing its own social regulations. It will involve placing students on faculty committees, changing legislative representation to a living-unit basis, revamping the judicial system, and giving Student Government a degree of financial autonomy.

Work on this plan began in December, '67 after an October "Summit Conference" of Student, Faculty, and Administration Leaders at a YMCA camp near the campus laid a foundation of mutual understanding. The new atmosphere created by Dr. Scales' presidency has also done much to give new life to hopes for real student self-government.

Student government is established and operates under the Constitution of the Student Body and includes the Student Legislature and Honor Council. The 1968-69 Student Body President is Jim Sheffer, a senior of Hinsdale, Ill., Vice President is Jim Carver, a senior from Durham, N. C., Secretary is Marion Scherer, a junior from Cincinnati, Ohio, and Treasurer is Mike Gunter, a senior from Gastonia, N. C. Through membership on committees established by the legislature and directed by the Executive, participation in Student Government is available to large numbers of students.

Student Legislature

The Student Legislature, the legislative arm of Student Government is composed of legislators and officers of the four classes — seven freshmen, eight from each of the three upper classes, two day students. The chief purpose of the Legislature is to investigate, enact, and implement legislation for the benefit of the student body and to serve as a forum for hearing and acting on student grievances.

Under the proposed reorganization plan, legislators would be chosen by living units rather than on a class basis in order to bring the representative closer to his constituency.

While the President is not a member of the legislature, his programs and goals are usually reflected in legislative action. In addition, legislators initiate legislation according to their own perceptions of needs and according to the desires of their constituents. The real work of the Legislature is done by Legislative committees. Bills passed by the Legislature are referred immediately to one of the several committees for appropriate action. It is here that legislation is turned into reality. Committees such as Curriculum, Athletics, Student Facilities, Community Relations, University Development, and others have taken on new life and begun action in new areas of concern and interest.

The Vice President acts as liaison between the President and the Committee Chairmen who are appointed by the President and may be from outside the Legislature.

Reports on current issues and student Legislature action are available in the Old Gold and Black.

The student Legislature meets every first and third Wednesday night in the Legislative Chambers, Room 230, Reynolda Hall. Members of the Student Body are invited and are welcome to attend all Legislative meetings.

HONOR COUNCIL

The judicial wing of the student government is the Honor Council. When a student is charged for having committed an honor code offense, he is then brought to trial before the Council. Acting as a court, the council of eight men and eight women carefully weigh the evidence and decide on the penalty. The decision is usually final and only in extreme instances is a case reviewed by the faculty. The chairman for the 1968-69 school year is Bill Lambe, a senior from Charlotte, N. C.

The Women's Government Association

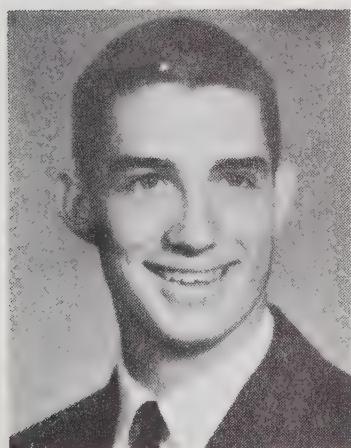

For the undergraduate resident women and the day students is the Women's Government Association the governing body in matters of social regulations. According to the preamble of the constitution, the purposes of this organization are ". . . to regulate all matters pertaining to the life of the women of Wake Forest University not under the jurisdiction of the Faculty; to increase a sense of individual responsibility; to further a spirit of unity among the women of the University; and to cooperate with the Faculty in creating and maintaining high ideals for women of this University." The president of the WGA for 1968-69 is Sandy Edwards, a senior from Newman, Georgia.

Men's Judicial Board

The Men's Judicial Board, which is a counterpart to the Women's Government Association, is composed of six male students and six members of the faculty. Unlike the Honor Council, which presides over honor code offenses, the Men's Judicial Board rules only on conduct violations. The purpose of the Board is to give an opportunity for the students of Wake Forest to regulate and participate more actively in their own affairs. This year's Men's Judicial Board chairman is Andy Portar, a senior from Salisbury, N. C.

Publications

On the second floor of Reynolda Hall is the heart of the student activities at Wake Forest – Pub (for publications) Row. At one end of the hall are the student government offices; at the other, the campus radio station; and down the side are the offices of the three student publications, a yearbook, a newspaper, and a literary magazine. This hall provides the eyes, ears and voice of the Wake Forest student body. Its role in the life of the college is a significant one, for it is the breeding ground of student ideas and the headquarters for student work.

The Wake Forest publications are governed by a Publications Board, the objects of which are to promote interest in journalism and college literary activities, and to build and raise the standards of the college publications. The membership of the Board consists of a Faculty Board, composed of faculty advisers, and a Student Board, composed of each publication staff's editor and business manager. All students are invited to participate in publications.

OLD GOLD AND BLACK

Old Gold and Black, the All American student newspaper, covers the campus like the magnolias. News of campus activities and items of community, state, and national scope which may affect the University, in addition to feature articles, editorials, columns, and advertising, keep the student up to date with campus affairs. Besides informing the students, Old Gold and Black is the principal means by which alumni and parents can keep in touch with campus life.

Linda Carter will serve as editor this next year.

THE STUDENT

The University literary magazine is The Student, an outlet for the creative ability of any Deacon. Included in the magazine are short stories, poems, art, book reviews, and news and photo features.

The magazine, which was founded in 1882, is the oldest University publication. It was suspended for two years but was reinstated in the spring of 1964. The Student is published five times throughout the school year. The content of each volume is manuscripts which are submitted by students and are accepted on the basis of individual merit.

Heading The Student this next year will be Ted Boushey.

THE HOWLER

The Howler, the University yearbook, contains a thorough word-and-picture account of the year's activities and is, therefore, a treasured record of Wake Forest for the future. Sections on studies, groups, special highlights, individuals, the community, and the world combine to tell the complete story of University life.

The Howler has appeared every year since 1903, and it has received an All-American rating many times from the Associated Collegiate Press.

Editing The Howler this next year will be Barbara Brazil.

The College Union

Because of the increased budget, the College Union is able to provide more and better activities for entertainment, relaxation, and stimulation at Wake Forest. It was established after the move to the new campus as part of the University's continuing attempt to meet the needs of all the students.

In the spring, College Union becomes involved in elections in which a group of qualified and enthusiastic students are chosen to head College Union in the coming year. Each year it sponsors informal lawn concerts, dances, lectures, parties, and numerous other recreational activities. College Union brings rock and roll, jazz, and folk groups to the campus. Among some of the notables of the past are the Four Seasons, the Association, the Letterman, Dionne Warwick, Simon and Garfunkel, Smokey Robinson and the Miracles, Carlos Montoya, and Ferrante and Teicher.

The movie program sponsored by the College Union is an especially note-worthy one, providing American classic films on Monday nights, foreign films on Wednesday nights and recent films on Friday and Saturday evenings. This coming year students will see classics such as "The Phantom of the Opera" and newer films such as "The Pawnbroker," "Morgan," "Marat/Sade," "The Taming of the Shrew," and "Blow-Up."

The Lecture Committee provides lectures by world famous personalities in various fields featuring this year, Lord Harlech, Peter Jennings, and Timothy Leary debating Sidney Cohen. Another College Union project is the monthly art exhibits in the gallery of Tribble Hall. The Travel Committee provides a Semester Break Snow Skiing Trip and a Spring Break Nassau Cruise. Major Functions Committee highlights for this year include "The Royal Guardsmen," for an orientation lawn concert in Reynolda Gardens and "The Sam and Dave Revue" for the first night of Homecoming plus a return visit by Ferrante and Teicher.

All students are welcome to participate in the various College Union committees. Freshmen are especially urged to participate.

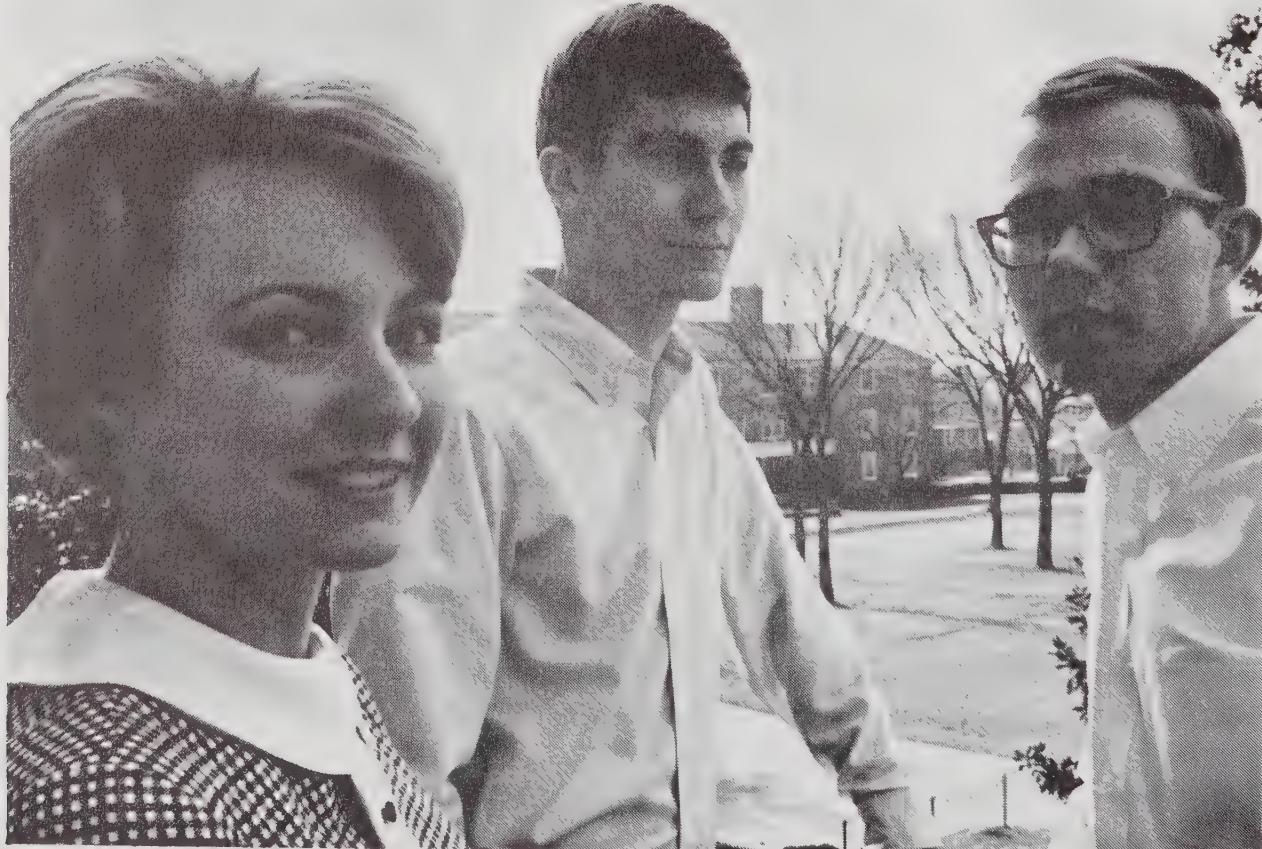

College Union Officers for 1968-69 are President, Jim Martin, Senior of Virginia Beach, Va.; Vice President, Dem Ward, Junior from Lumberton, N. C., and Secretary, Mary Alice Steele, a Senior from Charlotte, N. C.

The University Theatre

The University Theatre offers numerous opportunities to all students. They may participate as actors, directors, costumers, choreographers, make-up artists, carpenters, electricians, and spectators.

In the Library, the seventh level provides the space for Theatre facilities: a proscenium stage, an arena stage, a box office, dressing rooms, and sound and light booths. During the year, the dramatic program comprises four major plays, Reader's Theatre, and Laboratory Theatre. Upon completion, the theatre's activities culminate with the Annual Theatre Awards Banquet, at which outstanding performers are inducted into the National Collegiate Players.

Dr. Harold C. Tedford will direct the activities of the University Theatre.

WFDD – FM

WFDD, "The Voice of Wake Forest," broadcasts throughout Piedmont North Carolina by means of FM (88.5MC) and can also be heard in the dormitory at 650 KC on AM receivers. WFDD has a power of 36,000 watts.

WFDD-FM is operated entirely by student staff and broadcasts classical music and educational programs Monday through Saturday from 2 P.M. until midnight and on Sunday from 11 A.M. until Midnight. WFDD-FM is Winston-Salem's only exclusively classical radio station. Students interested in participating on the staff of WFDD should contact Dr. J. C. Burroughs at the radio station in Reynolda Hall.

Bi-Weekly Chapel

Having a heritage dating back to the founding of the college in 1834, Chapel at Wake Forest gives the students the chance to observe not only the religious atmosphere of the University but also the inter-relationship of all phases of campus life. Each week, guest speakers address the student body on subjects ranging from politics to outer space travel, from literature to the Peace Corps, and from professional sports to different religious beliefs. From time to time there are programs on student accomplishments and activities, including student body meetings, Wake Forest athletics, and programs by the different musical groups on campus.

Required Chapel serves another very important objective in the life and atmosphere of the University. Twice each week the student body comes together, thus generating a spirit of co-operation and common purpose — an intangible asset in maintaining a sense of closeness and friendship. Chapel at Wake Forest is an extension of academic inquiry experienced in the classroom and a focal point for collective student life.

The chapel programs are scheduled largely by the students themselves, acting through a student committee of the Student Legislature and co-operating with Dr. Hollingsworth, Chaplain of the University.

Religious Activities

At Wake Forest, the study and discussion of religion are significant as a field of academic inquiry. Students are invited to participate, regardless of their religious affiliation in one of the several religious groups providing opportunities for worship, study, service and recreation.

The Baptist Student Union, the largest religious group offers a full scope of activities. Under the direction of Baptist Chaplain Ed Christman, and for 1968-69 under the leadership of interium director Bob Knott, the BSU sponsors widely-attended monthly supper forums, a choir, a drama group, the Patterson Avenue Mission, and many other activities. BSU President is Bobby Ferrell, Senior of Greensboro.

The Wesley Foundation under the leadership of a new Methodist Chaplain offers the second largest program featuring weekly suppers at Maple Springs Methodist Church near the campus. Patti Wieferich, Senior of Bethesda, Maryland is serving as Wesley President.

The Canterbury Club under the direction of Episcopal Chaplain Jake Viverette, the Westminster Fellowship to be led by a new Presbyterian Chaplain, Bill Kurcheval, and the Newman Club directed by Father Begley are also active on campus.

The groups participate jointly in the University Interdenominational Ministry which sponsors The Attic coffeehouse and Pre-School Retreat, a popular Wake Forest event.

Musical Activities

Those students who express a desire to participate in musical activities at Wake Forest find a variety of musical organizations which provide an outlet for individual and group performance in vocal and instrumental fields.

In the instrumental field, the Marching Deacons and the lively majorettes add to the spirit and atmosphere of autumn football games. Under the direction of Dr. Calvin Huber, director of instrumental music, the Concert Band presents various concerts in Chapel and outdoors in the spring. In addition, the Department of Music has a stage band with fifteen to twenty members that is known for its "big band sound," and a Little Symphony whose concerts are a credit to the university.

Throughout the year, students are greeted by the strains of anthems performed by the Chapel Choir during Chapel services and the annual Christmas Vesper Service. The Touring Choir performs throughout North Carolina and other states and joins with the Chapel Choir for a spring concert of special music under the direction of Dr. Thane McDonald.

At the end of the year, individual music students exhibit their talents and hard work in Senior Recitals.

Chamber Music Society

The University is the home of the Wake Forest Chamber Music Society, composed of students, faculty, and townspeople. Each year the Society presents four outstanding recitals or chamber music groups. Two of these performances will be presented in the intimate atmosphere of De-Tamble Auditorium. The N. C. School of the Arts and Salem College will be the hosts of the other two performances. This year the Society will present their traditional list of distinguished performers in their respective fields. All interested persons may obtain season memberships, or, if preferred, tickets for each concert are available at the door. For any other information about the individual performances write Box 6011, Reynolda Station.

The Artists Series

World-renowned performers will visit Wake Forest University this year as the Artists Series, headed by Dr. Charles Allen, continues to bring a wide variety of the finest instrumentalists and vocalists to the campus. Masters in their respective fields will thrill audiences with their music, ranging from classical to light jazz. Students are admitted on their ID cards only, for money allotments for the program come from general fees and endowment funds.

This year's series will include:

October 22 — First Chamber Dance Quartet

"Unity and complete understanding that typifies fine chamber music ensembles. Their dancing has warmth, wit, and character."

— New York Times

November 20 — Yehudi Menuhin

One of the great violinists of the world will give a concert with his sister, Hepzibah Menuhin, the accomplished pianist.

February 12 — Montserrat Caballe

The leading soprano at the Metropolitan in concert with her husband, Bernabe Marti, and the Winston-Salem Symphony.

March 4 — Christopher Parkening

The young guitarist protege of Segovia, who is "The first native-born artist of stature to emerge on the classical guitar scene."

— Los Angeles Times

April 8 — Ivan Davis

One of the finest young pianists before the public today whose ". . . pianism is resourceful and intelligent."

— The New York Times

Last year's Artist Series provided such world famous artists as Marcel Marceau, French mime.

Debating

Dr. Merwin Hayes, the director of the Wake Forest debate team, stresses that debating is open to any student who is interested in attending the meetings and becoming a contributing member of the debate squad. There are no tryouts or eliminations.

In the coming academic year, the debate team will participate in twenty-five tournaments and will compete with some of the leading universities and outstanding debate schools of the nation. Wake Forest is the sponsor of two intercollegiate debate tournaments, the novice tournament in October and the Dixie Classic Varsity tournament in December. This year promises to provide Wake Forest debaters with both an active and challenging schedule.

Social Fraternities

As a freshman, one may be a bit confused at first trying to remember which Greek letters represent each of the ten social fraternities on campus. Gradually, the names and faces will fall into place, and new students will have the opportunity to affiliate with the fraternity of his choice.

Through the newly installed deferred rush rules, new students have the opportunity of viewing fraternities from afar for one semester; thus, one is able to objectively decide which brotherhood best suits his needs and personality. Freshmen may pledge a fraternity second semester only after they have attained the required minimum grade average and have received a bid from a fraternity. Transfer students may participate in rush first semester. Pledging is an important step in one's college career and should be done only after serious and careful consideration.

Wake Forest's social fraternities not only provide entertainment and parties, but also encourage academic excellence and participate in a well-rounded intramural program. A student makes close friendships and finds a place for himself within a brotherhood.

The central governing body of all social fraternities on campus is the Interfraternity Council. Composed of representatives from each brotherhood, it formulates the rules for rushing, pledging, and initiation. The IFC sponsors as its main social events of the year Mid-Winters and Greek Week.

Deferred Pledging

I. Purposes of deferred pledging:

- A. To insure freshmen the opportunity to make an acceptable academic average during their initial semester at Wake Forest University.
- B. To protect the fraternities and the fraternity system from the harmful effects of pledging academically unproven men.
- C. To provide the freshmen with an introduction to the fraternity system and the men comprising it with a minimum requirement of time and monetary expenditure for both parties involved.

II. Rules for deferred pledging:

- A. Pledging shall be deferred until the spring semester.
- B. During the fall semester, fraternity rush shall be limited as follows:
 1. During orientation of the fall semester, the IFC will present a program in chapel to inform all freshmen of the new system of rush and the stipulations applied to that system.
 2. During registration of the fall semester, any freshman who wishes to be included in the fall rush plans will pay a five dollar rush fee to the treasurer of the IFC.
 3. During the entire fall semester, no fraternity man (or any associate of a fraternity) may solicit for any fraternity in the freshman dormitories. Also, regulations between freshmen and fraternity men (in non-dormitory areas) shall be reduced to casual greetings and other minimal relations made necessary by the normal functions of the academic life of the University.
 4. During the entire fall semester, no freshman may enter a fraternity section unless attending a function approved by the IFC. At no time during the weekdays, Monday through Thursday, may the freshmen be allowed in the fraternity sections.
 5. Only those freshmen that carry IFC rush identification cards will be considered eligible for the IFC-sponsored functions of the fall semester.
 6. Any freshman who is approached by a representative of a fraternity must report such to the Dean of Men or a member of the IFC.
 7. Any fraternity man who sees a rush violation must report such to the Dean of Men or a member of the IFC.
 8. Effective September 12, 1968, through February 9, 1969, no brother or affiliate or pledge of a social fraternity shall be permitted to grant special privileges to a freshman on this campus.

The following shall be termed special privileges:

- a. dining with a freshman on or off the campus.
- b. giving out-of-class scholastic aid without the consent of the IFC Executive Committee.
- c. participating at any time in lengthy discussions or conversation that might lead to prosecution for violation of rule B-3 of the IFC deferred pledging rules.
- d. providing transportation for or being with any freshman at any intercollegiate competition (athletic or otherwise) recognized by the University.
- e. providing transportation for any freshman for any reason not sponsored by the IFC.
- f. allowing a freshman to accompany or be present with any brother or affiliate or pledge at any college, community, or gathering place (public or private).

C. In case of a violation of any of the above rush limitations (B-1 through B-8), the following penalties may be applied:

- 1. Any freshman involved in the violation of deferred rush rules will not be allowed to pledge a fraternity during the semester in which the violation occurred.
- 2. For the first offense, the fraternity in error will be fined $50 by the IFC.
- 3. For the second offense, the fraternity in error will be fined $75 by the IFC.
- 4. For the third offense, the fraternity in error will be suspended by the IFC from all IFC functions in that semester.

D. Any penalty imposed upon a fraternity for violation of any section of II-B may be appealed before the IFC if written notice of that appeal is registered with the IFC secretary no later than one week after the imposition of the penalty.

E. Only those freshmen who compile a 2.0 academic average (or better) during the fall semester shall be eligible to pledge a fraternity. These names shall be officially listed by the Registrar and will be made available to all chapters prior to the beginning of rush. Any freshman with a 1.75 academic average who has paid his rush fee may be rushed spring semester.

III. Formal Rush:

- A. Formal fraternity rush shall begin at seven o'clock a.m. on January 31, 1968 (the first day for classes). At this time the rules in force throughout the fall semester shall be raised and the following rules shall go into effect:
 1. Formal fraternity rush shall last from February 9, 1969, to February 25, 1969.
 2. No freshman may be in the fraternity section after 7:00 p.m. Monday through Thursday nights. Authorized evening smokers shall be an exception to this rule.
 3. No fraternity may be in the freshman dormitories between the hours of 9:00 p.m. and 7:00 a.m., Monday through Thursday. No rushing between these hours will be permitted, and freshmen seen outside the dormitories during these hours will be extended a casual greeting only.
 4. During the formal rush period, the ten fraternities will be divided into two groups (A and B). Each fraternity in these two groups will be allowed two parties, one of which must be on campus. A fraternity may not spend more than $500 for the two parties combined and the smoker, and an itemized account of all expenses must be presented to the Interfraternity Council. For the two weekends of the formal rush period, the Interfraternity Council will designate which group (A or B) will have their parties (on or off the campus will be stipulated) on each night of the weekends. During the designated parties, a fraternity outside the group may not sponsor a party.
 5. Silence period will begin at 12:00 midnight on February 25, 1969, and will extend until the freshman reaches the section of his choice on February 26, 1969, at 7:00 p.m. or until midnight on that date. During this period, no rushees are to visit any fraternity section or converse with any fraternity man.
 6. At 7:00 p.m., February 26, 1969, each freshman rushee shall indicate his choice of a fraternity to the Dean of Students and then shall go to the fraternity that he intends to pledge. One IFC representative from each fraternity section shall be stationed outside the Dean's office to enforce the silence period.
 7. Upper classmen and transfers with at least a sophomore standing (24 hours and a C average) may be pledged at any time. Summer School freshmen may not be pledged until February 26, 1969.

8. No man may be pledged to a social fraternity and, after relinquishing or being deprived of his pledgeship to the aforesaid fraternity, repledge the original fraternity or any other social fraternity during the same semester.
9. Pledging shall be free and open after February 26, 1969.

B. If any violation of the above rushing rules (section III, A-1 through A-5) occurs during the formal rush period, the same penalties as listed in II-C shall be in effect. Appeals may be made according to II-D.

C. These rush rules, after approval of the faculty, went into effect in September of 1966 and will last no longer than September of 1970, at which time they will be considered by the IFC and changes made if necessary. However, at any time the IFC reserves the right to recommend changes to the Student Affairs Committee and, upon that group's consent, effect said changes.

Societies

The search for identity on campus and the need for closer friendships and fellowship lead many co-eds to join one of the five girls' societies at Wake Forest. The clubs, known as Fideles, Laurels, Les Soeurs, S.O.P.H., and Strings, offer membership to any girl with an overall C average who declares her desire to join by participation in Society rush, usually the first of the second semester. The societies sponsor parties and other social gatherings, perform service projects, and participate in an organized intramural program.

The Inter-Society Council co-ordinates the activities of all the societies and acts as a spokesman and a sounding board for the groups to come together. It is composed of the presidents of each society and one representative of each class in the society.

Men's Residence Council

The men's residence council was created to expose each individual student to various stimuli and allow him to become involved in new areas of endeavor. "Involvement" is the keynote to the Men's Residence Council's attempt to fill this vacuum in a man's life. The MRC feels that it is its responsibility to provide an academic, social, and athletic program for the individual student. Upon entering Wake Forest you become a member of the MRC, but it becomes valuable to you only if you take advantage of the opportunities made available.

The residential house system operates through the programs offered by the four Residence Houses — Davis, Kitchen, Poteat, and Taylor with the central council as the advisory agency. The program of the MRC is an exceptional one. Academically, house seminars and informal lectures involving faculty and guest speakers not only introduce controversial and interesting subjects, but also improve student-faculty relations. Tutorial programs as well as House libraries and study areas add much to the academic program. The intramural athletic program gives an opportunity for development of co-operation through team effort and also serves as a pleasant outlet from the tensions of late study nights.

The result of this program is a well-rounded individual experienced and totally educated so that he is able to adjust to the various demands and situations of later life.

Other Organizations

Organizations

A large number of societies, groups, and clubs cover the range of student interests and activities at Wake Forest. Membership in these organizations is through scholarship or a desire to intensify a particular scope of interest that the student may have.

Honorary societies are Phi Beta Kappa, national scholarship society; Omicron Delta Kappa, national men's leadership society; Tassels, women's leadership society; and honoraries in the following fields: pre-med, biology, chemistry, mathematics, German, Romance languages, history, Latin, speech, religious activities, physical education, military, theater, and debate.

Other organizations with which a student may choose to affiliate are Circle K and Alpha Phi Omega service fraternities, Young Democrats and Republicans Clubs, business and teachers organizations, the English Club, the International Relations Club, the Orchesis Dance Club, the Monogram Club, Maritimers swimming club, and women's physical education and recreation clubs.

Peace Corps

Mark Reece, Dean of Men, is the Peace Corps' liaison representative on the campus. Any student who is interested in this organization can secure descriptive literature and information from Dean Reece in 203 Reynolda Hall.

Navy ROTC Program

The United States Navy offers a Reserve Officer Candidate (ROTC) Program whereby a Wake Forest student may complete his military requirements for commission as Ensign in the United States Navy Reserve by attending weekly drills at the Winston-Salem Naval Reserve Training Center, 930 Brookstown Avenue, and by attending the ROTC schools during the summer following his sophomore and junior years. A commission is granted on graduation from Wake Forest University. Further information is available through the Commanding Officer of the Training Center or Dr. Carlton Mitchell of the Wake Forest faculty.

The ROTC Program

A senior unit of the United States Army Reserve Officers Training Corps was established at Wake Forest University in 1951. The general objective of the program is to produce officers who possess the leadership and scholastic attributes to progressive and continual development as Reserve Officers in the Army of the United States.

The ROTC program is divided into a Basic Course (freshmen and sophomores) and an Advanced Course (juniors and seniors). Uniforms, military textbooks and equipment are provided students by the United States Government. Students selected for the Advanced Course receive fifty dollars per month, which totals about twelve hundred dollars for the entire course. Several scholarships available to advanced students include tuition, books, laboratory fees as well as fifty dollars per month subsistence allotment.

A student enrolled in ROTC who meets prescribed requirements may receive deferment from selective service. After successful completion of the ROTC program and receipt of a baccalaureate degree, students are commissioned second lieutenants in the U. S. Army Reserve. If selected as a Distinguished Military Graduate, a student may be appointed a second lieutenant in the Regular Army.

SPORTS

The University provides extensive athletic and recreational facilities and a faculty of trained supervisors to direct activities in various fields. Space and equipment are readily available to all students for recreational purposes.

For use within the program, the University maintains athletic fields, tennis courts, and a recreation building which includes a swimming pool, handball and squash courts, rhythm studio, arts and crafts room, recreational area, corrective rooms, a gymnastics and wrestling room, and a women's gym, a varsity basketball gym and two men's intramural gyms.

Two semesters of physical education are basic course requirements for graduation. A wide variety of courses are offered to fill these requirements as well as elective hours.

Intramural Sports

The department of physical education provides a varied intramural sports program that appeals to the interest of several hundred Wake Forest students every year.

Intramural sports include touch football, basketball, wrestling, golf, and tennis (both fall and spring), volleyball, handball, table tennis, badminton, horseshoes and softball for the men under the direction of Dr. Taylor Dodson. A similar program is available for women through the sponsorship of the Woman's Recreation Association. Individual awards and trophies are based on points which coeds may accumulate by participating in various activities and tournaments.

Competition in team sports is on the basis of fraternity or society and independent teams. Any individual or group of individuals may organize teams and enter competition in any sport. Individual sports are run on a single-elimination basis, and everyone is eligible to enter. Trophies are awarded to individual and team winners in every spot.

Recreational Organizations

A Physical Education Major's Club is composed of all women who are majoring in physical education and those who are interested in it as a profession.

The Orchesis Dance Club performs two recitals a year, uncovering much talent among the coeds and from the dance classes. The organization is under the direction of Mrs. Shockley.

An opportunity for men to play soccer has developed with the formation of the Soccer Club operating on the campus although not actually connected with the physical education department, and composed of interested students and community members.

The Maritimers, advised by the varsity swimming coach, Leo Ellison, is a group of girls concerned with synchronized swimming and water stunts. A Christmas show and a Spring performance highlight the year's activities.

Recently several woman's competitive teams have been organized for field hockey, tennis and golf. A friendly rivalry has developed between the coeds and Salem and Greensboro girls.

The honorary men's fraternity in the field of physical education is Phi Epsilon Kappa.

A gymnastics club has been organized by Dr. Dodson for interested persons.

Intercollegiate Sports

In intercollegiate sports the University is a member of the Atlantic Coast Conference, one of the finest athletic circuits in the nation. Wake Forest teams are better known to the spectators as the Demon Deacons.

The year-round varsity sports schedule includes football, basketball, baseball, track, swimming, cross country, tennis, and golf. Freshman teams have a full schedule in all the intercollegiate sports.

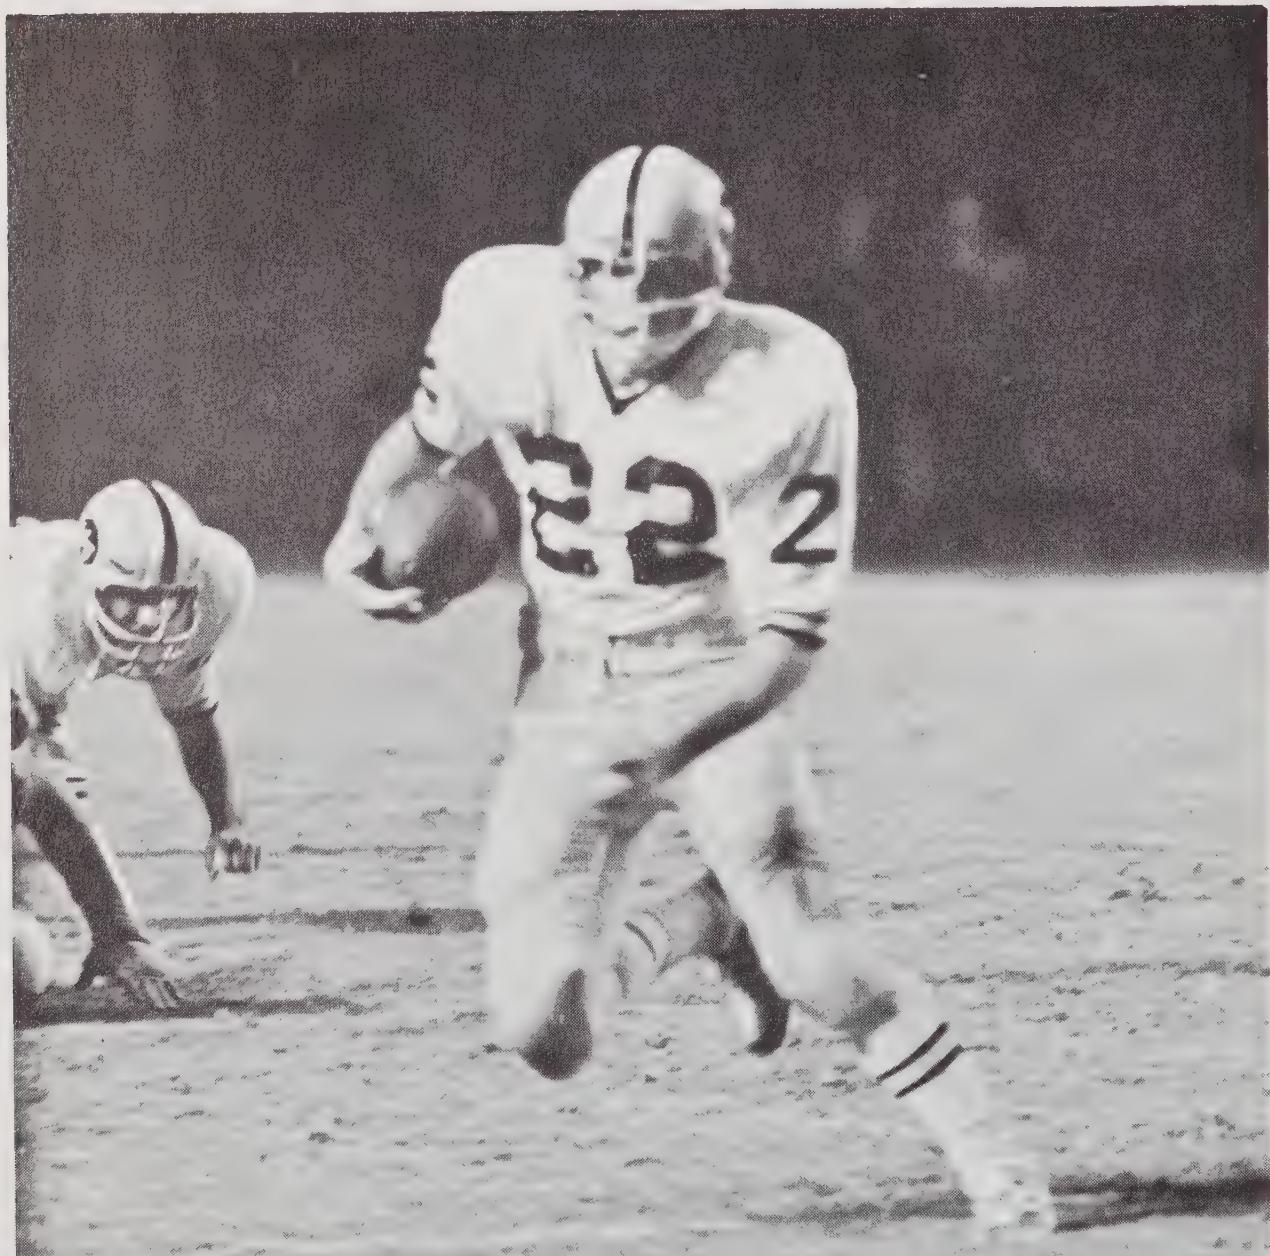

Other schools that are members of the ACC are Duke, the University of N. C., North Carolina State, Clemson, and the Universities of South Carolina, Virginia and Maryland.

Deacon footballers are playing home games at the new Wake Forest University Stadium in Winston-Salem near the campus. The campaign for funds was launched early in 1966 and a ground-breaking ceremony was held in the spring of 1967. Home baseball games are played at the Ernie Shore field and the basketball games are played in the Winston-Salem Coliseum near the campus. Tennis and swimming facilities are located on campus.

Absence Regulations

Wake Forest University has no official policy regarding class absence and attendance; however, the members of the student body are considered sufficiently mature to appreciate the necessity of regular class attendance and to recognize the consequences of failure to attend classes. A student is responsible for all the work of all class and laboratory meetings of any course in which he is enrolled. Work missed because of absence (including quizzes) may be made up only at the discretion of the instructor.

An instructor may also use his discretion in determining the number of absences a student may have in his class and is privileged to check with the office of the Dean of the College for suitable action regarding students who in his opinion are causing their work or that of the class to suffer because of absences or lateness. Any student who does not attend classes regularly or demonstrates other evidence of academic irresponsibility is subject to such disciplinary action as the Executive Committee may prescribe, including immediate suspension from the University.

The office of the Dean of the College maintains a list of students who have been absent from class (1) because of illness (when certified by the University Health Center) or (2) as authorized representatives of the University (when their names have been submitted by appropriate University officials forty-eight hours in advance of the hour when the absences are to commence). Such absences are considered "excused," and a record of them is available to the students' instructors upon request.

Automobile Regulations

Any student regardless of classification or grade average is permitted to have a motor vehicle — an automobile, a motorcycle, or other motor-driven vehicles exclusive of automobiles — during both the school year and the summer school session. Regulations applicable to automobiles are also applicable to all motor-driven vehicles. A student declared ineligible to operate an automobile will also be denied the privilege of operating any other motor-driven vehicle.

A student may lose the privilege of having a motor-vehicle at any time that he is placed on social or conduct probation.

A student prevented by University regulations from having a motor vehicle is not allowed to maintain or operate one in Forsyth County or vicinity. Storing or otherwise keeping a motor vehicle in other places in this area for occassional use is a violation of this regulation. Aiding or abetting in this activity is also a violation of the regulation.

All motor vehicles owned or operated on the Wake Forest University campus by resident students, day students, law students, graduate students, faculty members, staff members or employees must be registered with the superintendent of Buildings and Grounds. The application for such registration must contain the following information: (1) the name and address of the owner and operator of the motor vehicle; (2) the make and model of the motor vehicle; and (3) the license number of the motor vehicle.

Along with the prepayment forms sent to all students before the beginning of the school year in September will be sent an application which all students wishing to operate a motor vehicle must fill out and return with their prepayment forms. After registering the motor vehicle, the student will receive a sticker which must be displayed on the right rear bumper. Stickers are effective for the school year — September through Summer School sessions.

The costs of registering a motor vehicle will be:

Automobile

School year — $10.00 for the first automobile and $2.00 for each additional automobile.

Spring semester only — $5.00 for the first automobile and $2.00 for each additional automobile.

Summer session only — $2.50 for each automobile.

Motorcycles and other motor-driven vehicles exclusive of automobiles

School year — $3.00 per vehicle

Spring semester only — $1.50 per vehicle

Summer session only — $1.00 per vehicle

When a student has registered a motor vehicle, he will receive a copy of the parking regulations and additional information concerning the use of a motor vehicle on the Wake Forest University Campus. Parking space will be a premium especially where automobiles are concerned.

Anyone with more than five (5) unexcused parking violations per semester shall be prohibited from having an automobile on campus. The student is required to remove his automobile from campus for the remainder of the semester. Thereafter, if he is found possessing or operating an automobile on campus, he will be referred to the Dean of Men or the Dean of Women for possible action by the Men's Judicial Board or the Women's Government.

Room Contract

Each student, in accepting his/her assignment, agrees to abide by this contract, the Constitution of the Student Body, and the dormitory regulations which follow, and to permit, in his presence, duly authorized University personnel to inspect his room and any effects in such room. Authorized personnel may enter rooms at any time to check for cleanliness or to make necessary repairs, or when it appears to the University that the safety of the students is endangered or where property damage is involved. In the student's absence, such inspection of the room and its effects may be carried out by at least two duly authorized employees.

1. The period for which rooms are rented is one semester; however, any student remaining in the same room for the second semester will not need to sign a new room contract as the contract provides for automatic renewal to cover the room assignment for the second semester. The University reserves the right to change or cancel room assignments in the interest of order, health, discipline or other urgent reasons.

2. All payments for room rent are made at registration. Room rental is not refunded upon withdrawal. The occupant may not sublet the room to another student, or to any other person.

3. The room is rented for actual use and occupancy by the student and shall not be used as a study hall or office by any student who is actually living elsewhere, either on or off the campus.

4. A woman student may exchange her room only with the advance written authorization of the Dean of Women. A non-fraternity student may exchange his room only with the advance written authorization of the Director of Residences. A fraternity student living in a fraternity section must follow the procedure outlined in the fraternity contract.

5. A charge of $5.00 will be incurred for authorized room changes made after October 1 in the fall semester and after February 15 in the spring semester. A charge of $5.00 will be incurred for all authorized changes made after the first week of a summer session.

A fine of $20.00 will be incurred for any change made otherwise.

6. The student will be charged for any damages which may occur in his room or furnishings, for any damage which may occur to his suite (on a pro-rata basis), and for all damages caused by his neglect, misuse, or abuse of any part of the University property. Any student may appeal his dormitory charge to the Board of Dormitory Damage Appeals.

7. University furniture or furnishings are not to be moved from the room in which they have been placed by the University.

8. All occupants must secure keys for the dormitory rooms at the office of the Director of Residences during regular office hours as follows: Monday through Friday, 8:30 A.M.-12:30 P.M. and 1:30 P.M.-5:00 P.M. and Saturday, 9:00 A.M.-12:00 noon.

The use or possession of an unauthorized key is forbidden. A deposit is required for a key, and this may be recovered by returning the key to the Director of Residences when the room is vacated. All keys must be returned, even if the student may plan to occupy the same room for a summer session or for the ensuing fall semester. Failure to return a room key under these circumstances, or failure to report a lost key, leaves the student liable for any damages which may occur to the room or suite.

9. Dormitories will open at 9:00 A.M. on Thursday, September 12, 1968. They will close at noon on the first day of the Christmas holidays (December 18, 1968) and will reopen at noon on the last day of the Christmas holidays (January 2, 1969). The dormitories will close at noon on the day following Commencement (June 10, 1969).

Dormitories will open at 2:00 P.M. on the day preceding the opening of the 1969 summer sessions and will close at 6:00 P.M. on the last day of the summer sessions.

Occupancy of a room otherwise may be permitted only in an extreme emergency and must have the written approval of the Director of Residences or the Dean of Women as appropriate. A charge of $1.00 will be made for each day or fraction thereof.

REGULATIONS

- (a) Only bona fide students of Wake Forest University may reside in the dormitories.
- (b) The University furnishes the principal articles of furniture. One additional small chest, table, or chair may be allowed. Rugs are not allowed. Study lamps and curtains or draperies (installed according to University regulations) are permissible. Furnishings are not to be used for other than the intended purpose, and beds are not to be disassembled. Each student will supply his own linen (for single beds), desk lamp and bulbs, and wastebasket.
- (c) Curtains, draperies, pictures, pennants, and clippings must be hung from the picture molding and not tacked or pasted on walls or woodwork. Window screens must be left intact.
- (d) Trunks and heavy luggage must be stored in trunk rooms.
- (e) NO ELECTRICAL OR OTHER TYPE OF EQUIPMENT MAY BE KEPT OR USED IN A ROOM WHICH WILL IN ANY WAY DAMAGE THE ROOM OR ITS FURNISHINGS. NO WINDOW FANS OR AIR CONDITIONING UNITS MAY BE INSTALLED WITHOUT THE WRITTEN PERMISSION OF THE DIRECTOR OF RESIDENCES. NO COOKING OR REFRIGERATING EQUIPMENT OR ELECTRIC IRONS MAY BE KEPT OR USED IN A ROOM.
- (f) The possession or use on the Wake Forest University campus of any intoxicating liquors, wines, or beer is forbidden. The presence of beer cans, liquor bottles, or any other container for alcoholic beverages in the dormitory or within a room constitutes a violation of this regulation, and the occupants of the room wherein such containers are found will be held responsible for such violation.
Occupants are hereby put on notice that the presence of such containers will be subject to report to the Dean of Men or the Dean of Women.
- (g) Firecrackers or other explosives, gambling, and animals or fowl are not allowed in the dormitories. Contraband will be confiscated when found.
- (h) Firearms are prohibited everywhere on the campus, except for use in the Department of Military Science.
- (i) Playing football, baseball, softball, golf, or any other sport is forbidden in the dormitory areas and must be confined to designated areas, as follows:
Fields west of Davis and Taylor Dormitories, north of Taylor Dormitory and Win-gate Hall, east of Poteat Dormitory, also the tennis courts and baseball fields already provided.
- (j) Women are not permitted in the dormitory sections of men's dormitories.
- (k) The use of dormitory rooms as sales offices or storerooms, or the solicitation of sales or gifts within the campus by any person, is prohibited without permission in writing from the Dean of Men.
- (l) No aerials of any type may be installed on any University buildings without the prior written permission of the Superintendent of Buildings and Grounds.
- (m) Students are expected to cooperate with the campus guards and to identify themselves upon the request of a guard. Failure to do so will be construed as misconduct.
- (n) Each student is expected to display his name in the cardholder on the door.
- (o) Application for repairs should be made to the Housekeepers or at the office of the Director of Residences.
- (p) Any student who moves from any dormitory room relinquishes all rights to any further use of the room, regardless of rental which may have been paid.

(q) Occupants are expected to refrain at all times from making excessive noise, either in person or by radios, record players, or other instruments capable of causing noise. Students shall not in any way interfere with the comfort or rights of other students.

(r) Students who fail to comply with these regulations may forfeit their right to live in the dormitory.

(s) Wake Forest University assumes no liability for loss or damage to property of students.

THE BOARD OF DORMITORY DAMAGE APPEALS

1. The Board of Dormitory Damage Appeals shall consist of three members of the Student Body of Wake Forest College to be appointed by the President of the Student Body. There shall be two faculty members appointed by the President of the University to serve in an advisory capacity. It shall be the duty of the Board of Dormitory Damage Appeals to hear all appeals provided by these regulations. All decisions of the Board shall be final. It shall be the duty of the Board to make a written report to the Dean of Men as to all appeals heard and as to the Board's findings in each case appealed. If the decision of the Board is in favor of the applicant, the paid charges or deposit shall be remitted.

2. Time and place for payment of charges: Payment of the charges specified must be made within five days from the date of the statement of charges, such payment to be made at the Office of the Treasurer of Wake Forest University.

3. Appeals: Any student may file an appeal after full payment of any charge of $10 or less or after payment of a $10 deposit on charges exceeding $10, such charge having been imposed by statement for damage to dormitory area under the provisions of the Dormitory Room Contract and Dormitory Regulations.

4. Time within which appeals must be filed. All appeals must be filed with the Dean of Men within five days from the time of payment of the charges or a deposit on the charges as appropriate.

5. Time for hearing appeals: The Board of Dormitory Damage Appeals shall meet on the first Monday of every month.

6. Jurisdiction of the Board of Dormitory Damage Appeals: In the event that an appeal is made from the payment of a charge or the deposit on a charge imposed under these regulations, the Board of Dormitory Damage Appeals shall hear such cases upon the original charge. The appellant shall have the right to present testimony and witnesses in his behalf. The issues which may be decided by the Board shall be limited to determination of the factual issue as to whether or not the appellant is responsible for the damage inflicted or for a pro-rata share of the damage.

7. Appeals in the summer session: Appeal in the summer session shall be made to the Dean of Men, who is authorized to act in conformity with the rules herein set down.

8. The Board of Dormitory Damage Appeals shall, at all times, act in conformity with the Honor System.

THE HONOR CODE

The Honor Code is found in the Student Body Constitution. Students who are interested in the theoretical workings of the Honor Council, ie., election, quorum, trials, may obtain a copy of the entire Constitution from the Dean's office.

Article VII—The Honor System

Section 1—Essence of the System. The Honor System is more nearly a spirit than a code. Reduced to its simplest terms, it means that a man or woman shall act honorably in all relations and phases of student life, that his word can be trusted implicitly, and that he will at all times conduct himself as becomes students of Wake Forest University whether at the University or away from the campus. The regulations regarding specific student conduct shall be those prescribed by Statute.

Section 2—Provisions. The Honor System provides that it is the duty and responsibility of every individual student, not only to obey and uphold the System himself, but upon seeing someone else violate the spirit of the System to confront the violator by asking him to report himself to the proper authorities so that he might either clear himself or bear the responsibility of his actions. If the violator doesn't turn himself in, further action will be left to the discretion of the student who approached him.

Subsection a. Failure to report. Any student failing to approach another student who has violated the spirit of the system is himself acting in violation of the Honor System.

Subsection b. Proper authorities. It will be the duty of any person violating the spirit of the Honor System to report himself to a member of the Honor Council, or to the Dean of the College or the Dean of Women, as appropriate.

Statute I—Honor Violations

Section 1—Pledge Work. All academic work shall be regarded as pledge work unless otherwise designated by the instructor.

Section 2—Cheating. No student shall cheat on any pledge work. Cheating shall be defined as willfully giving or receiving aid or attempting to do so, or making any conscious effort to deceive on any pledge work.

Section 3—The Pledge. In all examinations, quizzes, and other pledge work each student shall be considered on his honor and shall sign the following: "I have neither given nor received any aid on this work."

Section 4—Penalty for cheating on pledge work. Although all penalties will be left to the discretion of the Honor Council, the minimum penalty for the first cheating offense will be that the student will be placed on probation, subject to such restrictions as this Council may impose; that a letter will be sent to his parents informing them of the Council's action, and that the action will be made part of the student's permanent Honor's office record. In addition, the Council will recommend that the instructor in the class in which the cheating occurred assign the student a grade of F. The maximum penalty for cheating will be expulsion.

Section 5—Plagiarism. No student shall plagiarize on any pledge work. Plagiarism shall be defined as offering as one's own ideas, words, paragraphs, phraseology, writings, etc. obtained from another source.

Section 6—Stealing. No student shall be guilty of stealing.

Section 7—Debts. No student shall fail to pay just debts contracted by him. Any student guilty of this offense shall be notified by the Council to pay the debt. If the debt has not been paid within 30 days from the time the student was notified by the Council, the student will stand trial.

Section 8—Worthless checks. No student shall knowingly or willingly pass a worthless check.

Section 9—Interfering with procedures of the Honor Council. No student shall be guilty of interfering with any proper procedures of the Student Honor Council.

Section 10—False Testimony. No student shall be guilty of false testimony in trials before the Student Honor Council.

Student Marriages

Except as herein provided, any student, man or woman, including day students, under twenty-one years of age, planning to continue his enrollment in the University after marriage must, prior to the marriage, have his parents or guardian notify the Dean of Women, in the case of women students, or the Dean of Men, in the case of men students. Notification shall be in writing and shall set forth the date and place of the marriage and the name of the person whom the student is marrying.

A student twenty-one years of age or older who plans to continue his enrollment in the University after marriage must, prior to the marriage, notify the Dean of Women, in the case of women students, or the Dean of Men, in the case of men students. Notification shall be in writing and shall set forth the date and place of the marriage and the name of the person whom the student is marrying.

A student who is married in the summer when he is not enrolled in the University for either the first or second summer session is not required to notify the Dean of Women or the Dean of Men prior to the marriage. However, immediately upon the return of the student to the University, he must notify the Dean of Men or the Dean of Women.

No woman student may continue living in the dormitory after marriage.

Any student who is married without proper notice will be given the opportunity to withdraw from the University immediately. Failure to withdraw will subject him to such disciplinary action as the Executive Committee of the faculty may prescribe, including immediate suspension from the university. Subsequent readmission after withdrawal or suspension will be at the discretion of the Executive Committee.

For the purposes of this requirement, a student is considered to be enrolled in the University continuously from the beginning until the end of the school year. By way of illustration and not by way of limitation, a student is considered to be enrolled in the University during holidays and during those periods between the fall and spring semesters and between the first and second sessions of summer school.

IDENTIFICATION CARDS

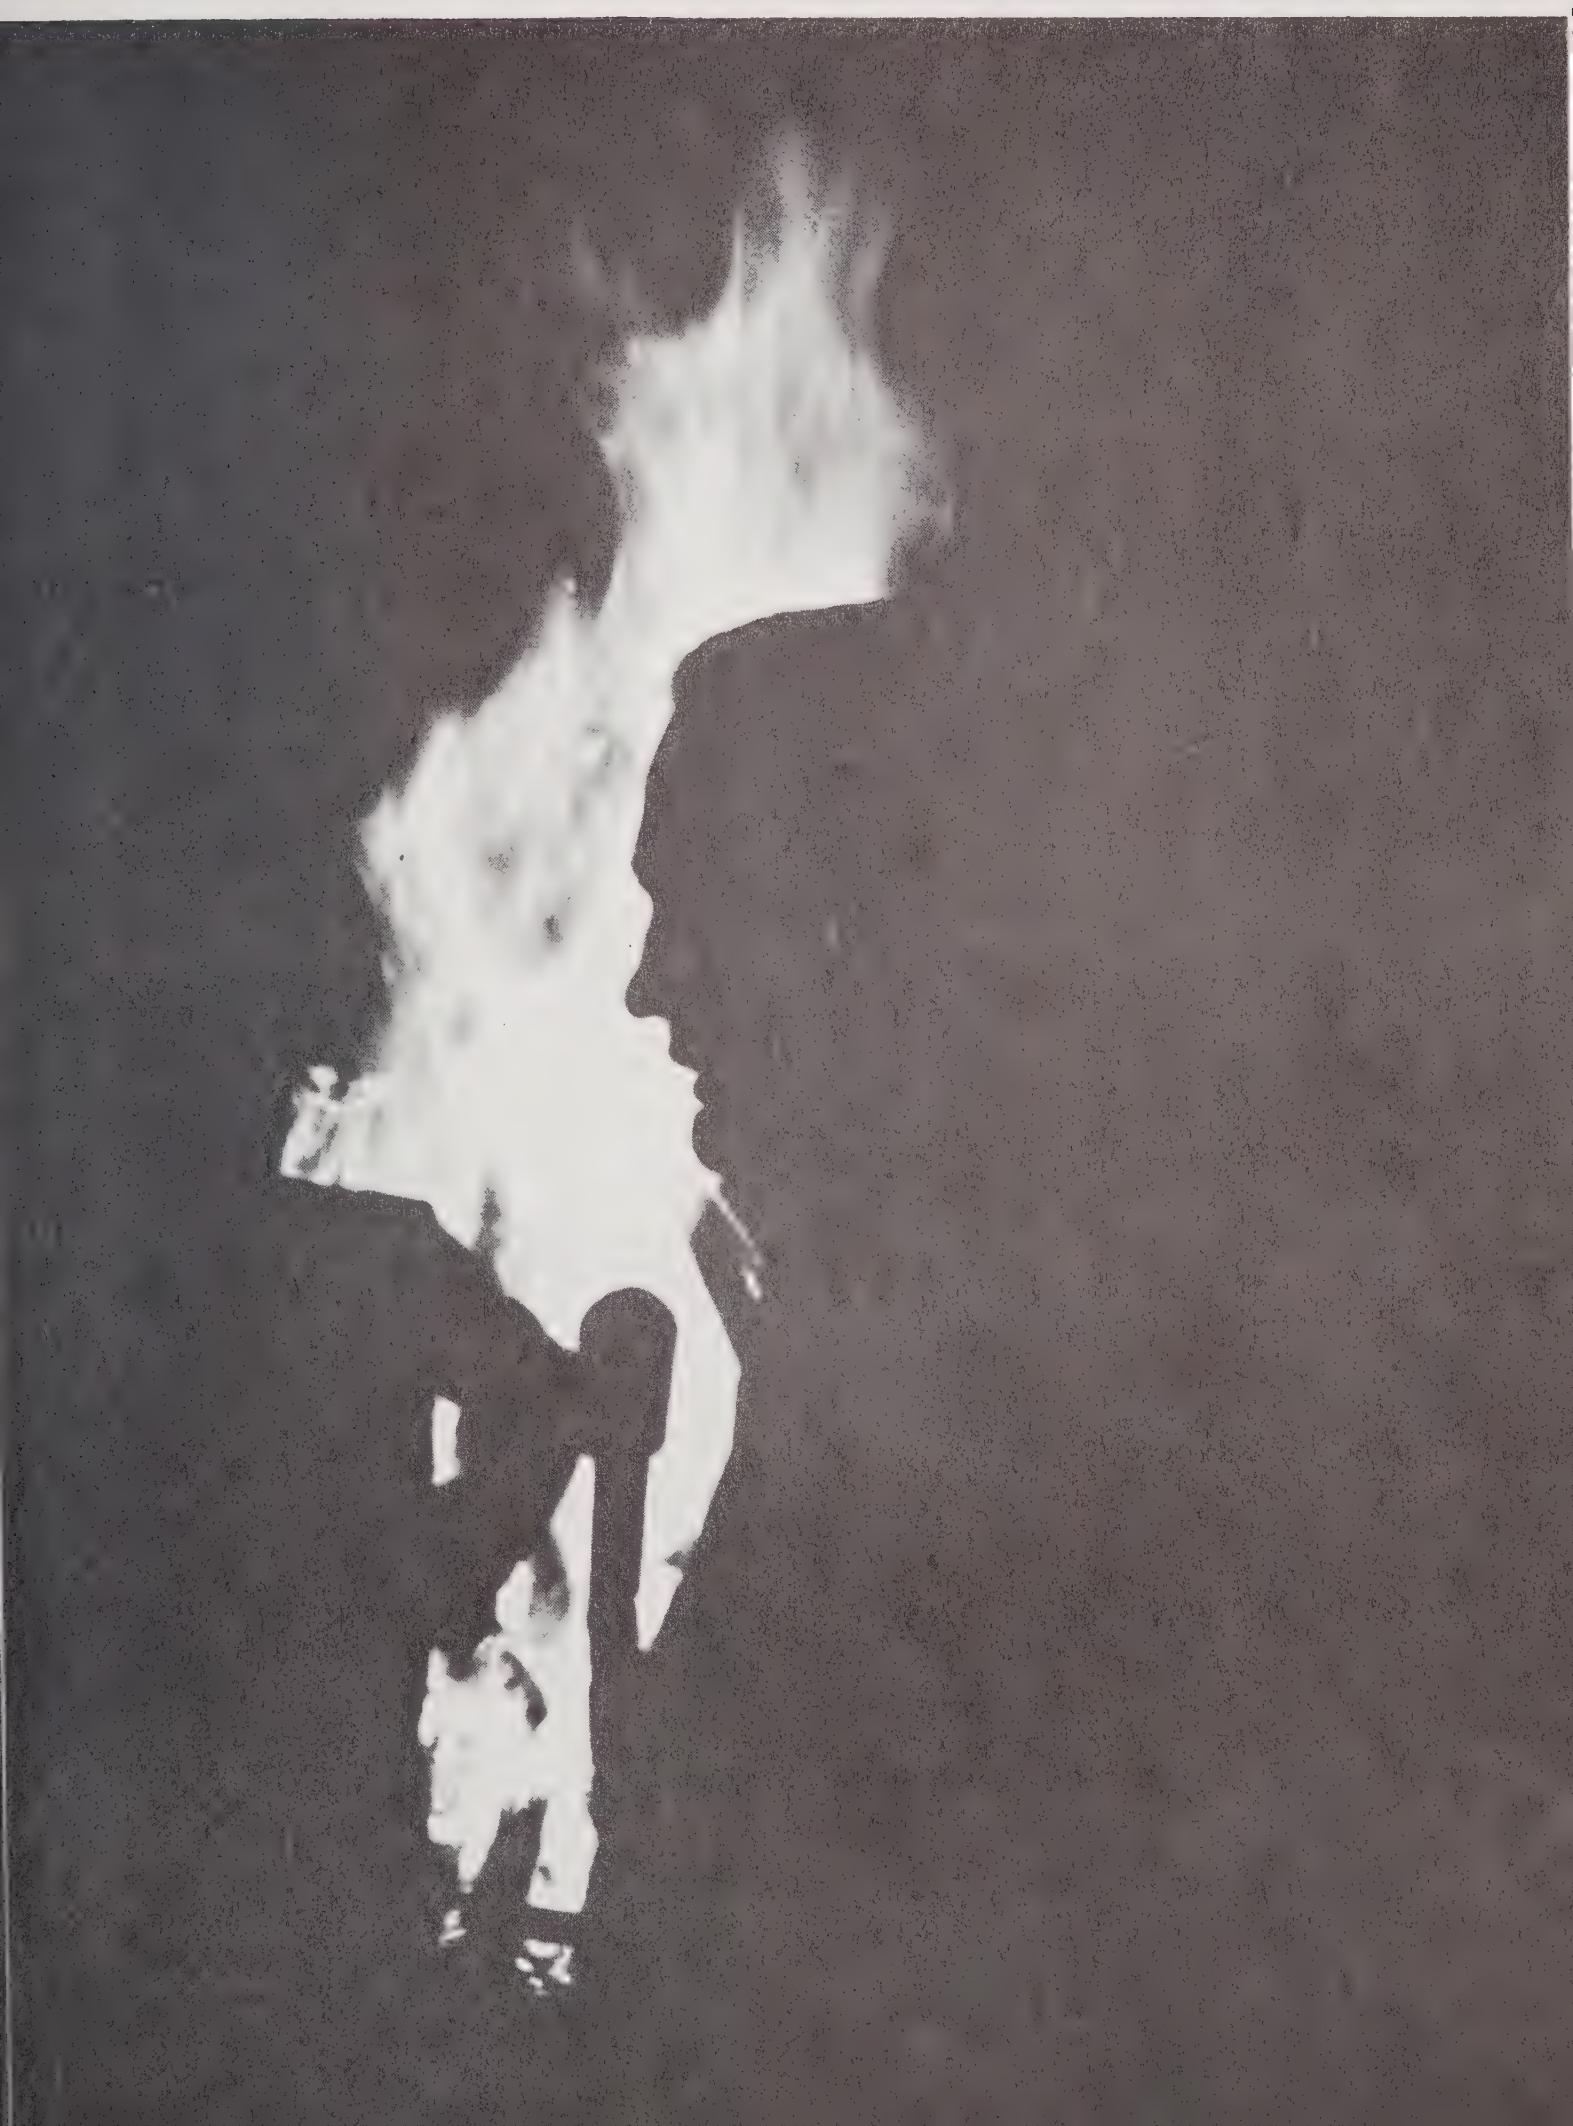

At the September registration, all new students will be photographed for identification cards. These are permanent and are used for a student's entire stay at Wake Forest.

Students will be required to carry these cards and to exhibit them on proper request. They will be used for admission to athletic contests and the Concert-Lecture

Students will be required to carry these cards and to exhibit them on proper request. They will be used for admission to athletic contests and the Concert-Lecture series, as well as for other purposes of identification.

When a student withdraws from the University, he must turn in his identification card to the Business Office. If a card is lost, a charge of $10.00 will be made for replacement.

SONGS

DEAR OLD WAKE FOREST

(The Alma Mater)

Dear old Wake Forest!
Thine is a noble name;
Thine is a glorious fame,
Constant and true.
We give thee of our praise,
Adore thine ancient days,
Sing thee our humble lays,
Mother, so dear.

Dear old Wake Forest!
Mystic thy name to cheer;
Be thou our guardian near,
Fore'er and aye.
We bow before thy shrine,
Thy brow with bays entwine,
All honor now be thine,
Mother, today.

OH, HERE'S TO WAKE FOREST

(The Fight Song)

Oh, here's to Wake Forest, a glass of the finest
Red, ruddy Rhenish filled up to the brim!
Her sons they are many, unrivaled by any;
With hearts o'erflowing we will sing her hymn.

(Chorus)

Rah, Rah, Wake Forest, Rah!
Old Alma Mater's sons we are;
We'll herald her story and die for her glory,
Old Gold and Black is ever waving high.

As frosh we adore her; as sophs we explore her,
And carve our names upon her ancient walls;
As juniors patrol her; as seniors extol her,
And weep to leave fore'er her sacred halls.

Though fortune forsake us and fate o'er take us,
We'll ne'er forget our dear old collegē days,
And o'er memory's treasure we'll drink without measure,
And sing fore'er our Alma Mater's praise.

Fellow Deac,

Welcome to Wake Forest University. You are now on the threshold of a challenging four (five or six) years. You will learn a great deal; you will continue to mature in many ways, and most of all you will grow to appreciate and love Wake Forest.

When I came to Wake Forest from my home in Texas, I expected to see a great deal of enthusiasm and interest put forth toward all aspects of the student life at Wake. For instance, I expected all students to be proud of their student publications, their athletic teams, and their high quality of education.

Upon arrival I found that the attitude here did not completely meet up to my expectations. I began to hear some students griping about certain student organizations or about the athletic teams. One of the first things I noticed about these students that were berating our student organizations was that very few of them ever took it upon themselves to improve the organizations. I was displeased with some aspects of the school but I chose to do something about it. Any of you have the same opportunity to be an active part of Wake Forest as I have. When I became involved, I began to discover that Wake Forest offered a great deal of which I could be proud. Our students publications, for instance, are among the best in the nation and so is our academic rating. Our athletic teams have a lot of potential and the golf and tennis teams have achieved national and ACC ranking.

There are many people who have a great appreciation for the tremendous institution of Wake Forest. There are however a few that do not. I challenge you, freshmen, to overcome the negative attitudes of these few and to give part of your time to Wake Forest University in order to make this great institution ever greater. No one has ever challenged the Freshmen before. I do it now. You will make Wake Forest. You are Wake Forest. You owe it to yourselves to become active in the life here; use your imagination, and bring about creative changes which will continue to make all people aware that we are Wake Forest Demon Deacons and consequently we are the best.

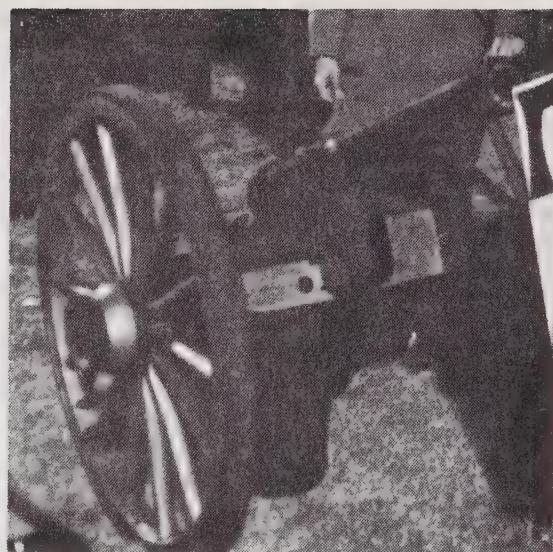

Your Fellow Student,
Jim Sheffer

EPILOGUE

The Spirit of Wake Forest does not lend itself to description as do the buildings or the people or the organizations. In these last few pages, we have attempted to convey to you the Wake Forest Spirit.

The scoreboard said Wake Forest 35, opponent 17 as the boom of the victory cannon died and the strains of the Alma Mater rose. All the students were hurrying out though, not even taking time to sing-- hurrying back to a campus draped by now in toilet tissue, the pealing of the library bell, and a night of victory celebrations. School spirit was at a peak. Now was a time to be proud you went to Wake Forest.

As I sit here on the patio of Reynolda Hall and remember that day, I wonder just what spirit -- the Wake Forest spirit is. Is it the hard-fought victory and not the hard-fought defeat? Is it the quietness of the campus drenched in an orange sunset and not the laughing effervescence of a student party with a combo coming close to blasting your brain into the next room? Is it the long run on the football field and not that long period in the classroom.

alumni of more than half a century. But the Wake Forest spirit is no longer vibrant in those old forests in Wake County. No one can understand Wake Forest without walking the bright sidewalks on a hillside in Forsyth County either. Wake Forest is like the marble slab with the college insignia they tried to bring to Winston-Salem when the campus moved, but when it got to that new place away from its old home, they found it was broken and could never be repaired. Soon half of it was even lost. Wake Forest is like that slab of marble. They brought it to that new place away from its old home, but it was broken and part of it was even lost. But they didn't despair. They made a new college insignia an insignia with the same model, but they used a new material. It was stronger, and finer, and more resilient. It bore the same proud letters and declared again that purpose declared a century before, Pro Humanitate, for mankind. Wake Forest is new and old; that's part of its spirit.

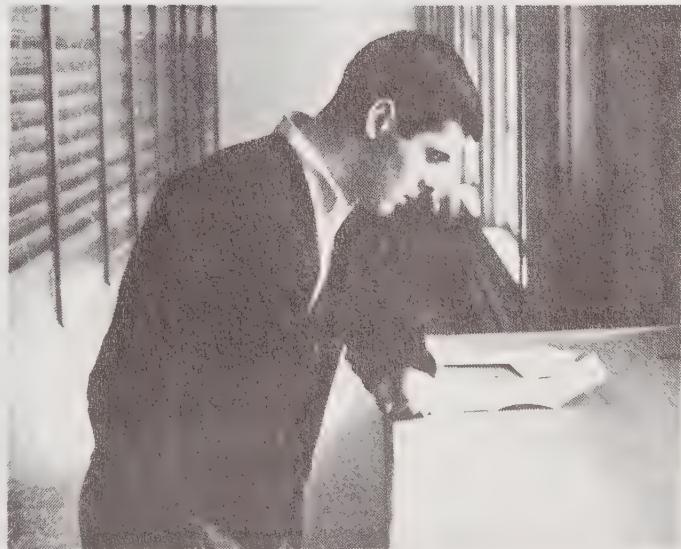

The Wake Forest spirit is hard to define. It is something that has called forth men for a century and a third. Something that a man could dedicate his life to. We have proved that the Wake Forest spirit is more than a place. No one can understand Wake Forest without walking those old magnolia covered lanes and talking to the

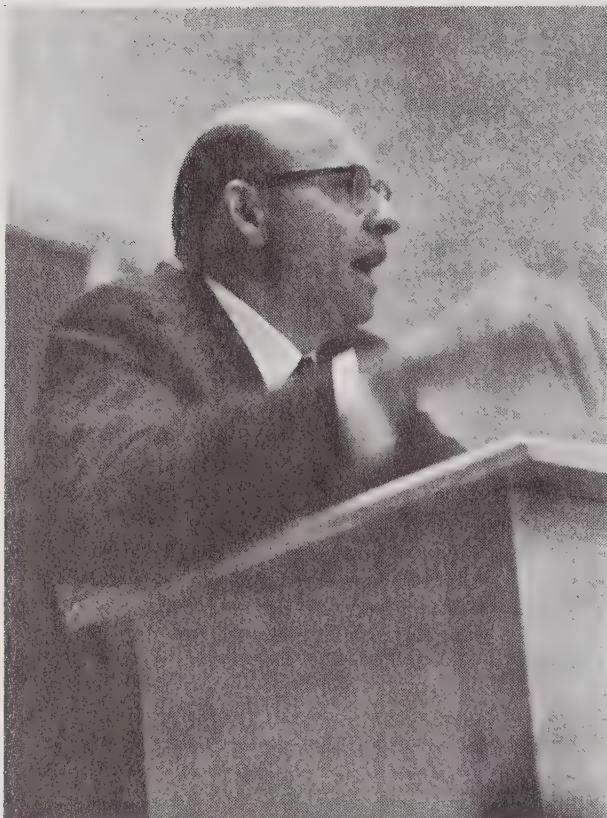

The Wake Forest spirit is more than just people too. There could be no comparison between the administrators of Wake Forest today and old Samuel Wait and his little institute for preachers.

Almost everyday new people become a part of the Wake Forest history, and yet that same old spirit somehow survives, whatever it is. Wake Forest people are old and new too, and the spirit of Wake Forest is found in a blending of the two.

The Wake Forest spirit is more than just the classroom. In the modern research laboratories of Bowman Gray, men labor with the same diligence that men labored in the fields to raise the crops to support their school in 1834. Samuel Wait would be amazed to see what is being taught and learned at Wake Forest today, and yet somehow the Wake Forest spirit has been a part of both.

But what is the Wake Forest spirit? For one thing it is contrasts. Old and new, regional and national, small and large, homogenous and diverse, sleepy and vigorous, these are all Wake Forest. Wake Forest is always sort of in-between; it's not all of anything. It's easy to say where it's been and speculate where it's going, but it's oh so hard to tell where it's at. Wake Forest is enchain'd in it's heritage and fighting doggedly for the future it wants. Maybe that's the Wake Forest spirit, and yet it's more. The Wake Forest spirit is every person that walks its campus, and every brick of every building, and every class of every teacher, and yet it's something more.

The Wake Forest spirit is hard to define because it's tomorrow—it is "becoming," and everyday we learn a little more of what Wake Forest is all about, By living and breathing the Wake Forest story for ourselves, we find the spirit of Wake Forest. We find it in victory and defeat; we find it in silence and noise; we find it on a football field and in a classroom. We find it because we are Wake Forest, and our spirit is its spirit. It does us little good to question what the Wake Forest spirit is. We have only to look at ourselves; we are Wake Forest.
